

CLASSIFICATION SECRET
COUNTRY Austria	REPORT
TOPIC Information from Waellich Hof and Liechtenstein Castle
EVALUATION 	PLACE OBTAINED
DATE OF CONTENT
DATE OBTAINED 	DATE PREPARED 25 August 1954
REFERENCES
PAGES 1	ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE)
REMARKS

1. On 20 July 1954, 46 motor vehicles including tank truck and trucks were parked in front of the "Park Konservatii" in Waellich Hof (48°06'N/16°14'E). Vehicular traffic observed involved truck and sedan both with drivers wearing black-bordered blue epaulets. A total of about 123 motor vehicles, of which 73 were counted, were parked in the area of the "Park Konservatii". There was traffic by personnel wearing red-bordered black epaulets.¹
2. Seven motor vehicles were parked in the garages of Liechtenstein Castle (48°05'N/16°16'E) which were guarded by sentries wearing black-bordered blue epaulets. Between the castle and Moedling (48°05'N/16°17'E) there was traffic by officers wearing blue-bordered blue epaulets and vehicular traffic.²
1. Comment. Elements of the 250th Motor Trans Bn of the Fifty-Ninth Air Army are quartered in Waellich Hof. The headquarters of the battalion is stationed in Brunn am Gebirge.
2. Comment. Liechtenstein Castle houses the signal battalion which is subordinate to the Fifty-Ninth Air Army.

NODEX

CLASSIFICATION SECRET